Police escort local children to school

FORT PIERCE – Local students having to walk to and from school will get a special treat this year – a personal escort from members of the Fort Pierce Police Department’s Bike Unit.

In order to cover the majority of the schools in Fort Pierce, the five-member unit will be divided into two teams. Conducting bike patrols before and after school will allow the teams to interact with students attending 12 of the 14 schools located within the city limits.

Dubbed, “Back to School Ride,” the concept was introduced by Chief R. Sean Baldwin and is meant to welcome area students back to school as well as let the community know that we care about the safety and welfare of our kids.

The teams are as follows:

Alpha Team: Officer Darren Mace, Officer Heather Scarborough, and Officer Eric Eberhardt

Bravo Team: Officer Daniel Gilroy and Sgt. Caleb Gillette
