Professional wrestling event raises funds for kids

FORT PIERCE – Live Pro Wrestling returns in nine days to the Fort Pierce Police Athletic League Center.

On Saturday, December 19, 2009, a host of professional wrestlers will converge on the PAL Center, located at 1401 N. Second Street, in a night filled with surprises. Title matches and a variety of superstars of wrestling are on the menu to be served up during this exciting event.

Doors open at 7 p.m. and bell time is at 7:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased at the door. General admission is $10 and ringside seating is $20. Proceeds will benefit the PAL.

The following pro wrestlers are scheduled to appear: NWA Florida & NWA Midwest Heavyweight champion The Sheik with Fabulous Frank, NWA Florida Tag Team Champions, Dark City Fight Club, "Modern Revolution" Steve Madison, Chris Jones, Francisco Ciasts with the Double Deuce Social Club, Dagon, Prince Laukea, Jack Manley, Nick Primo and many more superstars of wrestling. Shannon Rose, the voice of Fusion, will be on hand to give a play by play of the action.

Since the matchup between PAL and Pro Wrestling Fusion began in 2008, the union has raised approximately $12,000 for youth crime prevention activities and programs in Fort Pierce. Because the joint venture has proved successful, several other matches are planned well into 2010 on January 30, February 7, March 13 and May 2. Mark your calendars for the upcoming events.
